

The Woman Who May Need a Dress, Skirt or Coat

Will do well to visit our Basement to-day. Your dollar does double duty here. We will prove it.

$4 Separate Serge Skirts at . . . . . $1.98

$8.50 Serge Dresses at . . . . . $5.00

Ladies' All-Wool Serge Skirts, in navy and black. Cut on stylish lines and finished with buttons. All lengths. Get one to-day; only $1.98.

$3.00 Misses' Sport Coats at . . . . . $5.00

Since the story of how these Sport Coats are selling at $3 has gone around town, we have reordered four times over. The best looking Boucle Coats you ever saw. Sizes 14, 16, 18, 20 years, at $5.00 each.

Good looking Serge Dresses, made up in brown, navy, black and cadet blue. Fancier net vest and collar. Finished with satin girdle at waist. A perfect beauty, for only $5.00.

$5.00 Raincoats for Women at . . . . . $2.98

Made of such nice-appearing rubberized cloth that they can be worn clear days as well as in rainy weather. High collars, tab cuffs and pockets. Cement seams throughout. A fine garment; only $2.98.

Songs of a Syrian Lover . . . . . Frank Howard Winter Verses by . . . . . Clinton Scudder (a) "I Love the Sunlight on the Palms" (b) "Violin String and Dulcimer" (c) "My Olives Wave in the Wind" (d) "Safe Guided by the Pharoah Fire" (e) "Amid the Ruined Palms of Baal" IV.

"Nachtgang" . . . . . Strauss "Zwischen" . . . . . Strauss "Es hat die Rose sich Bluet" . . . . . Franz "Als die Alte Mutter" . . . . . Dvorak "Sturm" . . . . . Aria, "Waft Her Angels" ("Jephthah") . . . . . Handel III.

"Song of the Syrian Lover" . . . . . Frank Howard Winter Verses by . . . . . Clinton Scudder (a) "I Love the Sunlight on the Palms" (b) "Violin String and Dulcimer" (c) "My Olives Wave in the Wind" (d) "Safe Guided by the Pharoah Fire" (e) "Amid the Ruined Palms of Baal" IV.

"Boat Song" . . . . . Herbert Oliver "Among the Untroubled Waves" . . . . . John Barnes Wells "Why" . . . . . John Barnes Wells "Moon and Sea" . . . . . Montague Phillips "Alone I Wander" . . . . . Harriet Ware "If I Were King" . . . . . Mrs. A. B. Guigou was chairman of the afternoon, and L. E. Weitzel accompanist.

Afternoon Reception. Mrs. Herbert Mann and Mrs. George Bryan have issued invitations for a reception to be given on Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock at 311 West Franklin Street.

Leonard—Philpotts. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Philpotts, of Louisa, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Bessie Bland, to Dr. T. B. Leonard, of this city.

Leisure Postponed. Owing to the previous engagement of Maxon Atkinson, the address which had been made by him under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women on Thursday night in the basement of the Beth Ahabah Synagogue has been indefinitely postponed. It is expected that the address will be delivered at some later date.

Prayer Recital. The pupils of Miss Rosetta Mitchell gave their first monthly recital last Saturday evening at 1839 Hanover Avenue, on Saturday evening.

Many new and many brilliant costumes were worn by those present. In the dining room huge baskets of Lady Hillington roses were used everywhere, and the tables and buffets, from which supper was served, were decorated in the same blooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock stood with their children to receive the congratulations of their friends, and nearly 100 guests were entertained.

Mrs. Whitlock wore an imported gown of white moire velvet with a collar of point lace and a belt of lace. An old-fashioned affair of saffron flowers finished with a lace ruff and tulle streamers. Mrs. Whitlock was before her marriage, Miss Eva Abram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Abram, and their old home from which she had moved fifty years ago, corner of Nineteenth and Broad Streets, is still standing. The Rev. George Jacobs officiated at the ceremony in the old home of the bride's parents.

Many gifts and quantities of beautiful bouquets were received by Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock on this unique and interesting occasion, and the ballroom was thronged with a brilliant gathering of relatives and friends to present their hearty congratulations and felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock. A great many guests from a distance came to Richmond to be present.

Dinner for Bridal Party.

Maxwell Wallace is giving a dinner Thursday evening at his home near Westhampton in honor of Miss Barbara Trigg and David Tucker Brown, whose wedding will be a fashionable event Saturday evening, and the guests will include the bridal party.

At the Art Club. The annual meeting of the Art Club of Richmond will take place to-night at 8 o'clock. At 8:30 a reception will be held, at which the Right Reverend D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, will address the members and their guests in the club drawing-rooms on the subject of "Preservation of the Aesthetic Sense." The house committee will serve refreshments after Bishop O'Connell's lecture is concluded, and all members and their friends are invited.

There will be no lecture at the Art Club this afternoon.

Musical Tea. An interesting charity event of this evening will be the musical tea at 8 o'clock in Grace Episcopal Church. Decorations will be in fall flowers, and a charming program has been arranged by the committee in charge of the affair.

Black From Europe.

Dr. A. E. Turman has returned to Richmond, after a sojourn abroad, one year having been spent in Vienna and the remainder of the time in Egypt, Southern Europe, the British Isles and parts of Western Asia. Dr. Turman's daughter, Miss Adele Turman, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, of New York, accompanied by them, joined her father in Europe last summer for an extended stay. Miss Turman has a great many friends in Richmond, having spent much of her time here and in Goodrich. She is a granddaughter of the late Prince Nescowitz of Hungary.

Black From Vienna Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Warren have returned from their wedding tour through the South, and are now back in their home, 319 Decatur Street, South Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Warren were guests of honor at a very delightful reception on Saturday evening just after their arrival in Richmond.

Entertainment in Roanoke.

A progressive five hundred party was given Saturday night by Mrs. Stella M. Karnes, 1626 Campbell Avenue, Roanoke, in honor of Misses Alice Gary and Mary Walker of Richmond. The parlors were decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. The special prizes were awarded to Miss Gladys Davies and George Kuntz, and those winning the booby prizes were Miss Blanche Deal and Albert Dull.

Those present were Misses Alice Gary, Mary Walker, Gladys Davies, Gilda Price, Theresa Miller, Grace Benney, Blanche Mitchell, Blanche Deal, Pauline Knott, Nan Sticker, George Kuntz, Percy Jenkins, Richard Jenkins, Robert Davis, Fred Fisher, Harry Barnhart, Fred Douglass, Albert Dull, Edward Lockett and Willie Miller.

The chaperons were Miss Bertha Deal, Mrs. S. A. Austin and Mrs. Stella M. Karnes.

At the Woman's Club.

John Barnes Wells sang at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon. It was the first musical of the season.

Dunlop Flour. IT'S MADE IN RICHMOND. The Dunlop Mills, Richmond, Va.

The Ideal. Christmas remembrance is a photograph made by

Homeier & Clark. Arrange to have it made now before you are worried with holiday shopping.

Atelier: 307 E. Broad St. Phone Monroe 1507.

MADE FROM GOLD MEDAL FLOUR.

PATMOR. RAISED FROM FLEISCHMANN'S YEAST.

J. B. Mosby & Co. Women's New Suits at Special Prices.

THE REINACH CO., Inc. 107 E. BROAD STREET. MILLINERY—Women's and Misses' Outer Apparel.

THE FREED CO. 107 E. BROAD STREET.

SCHOOL SHOES FOR BOYS AND GIRLS. $1.50 to $3.00. Every Pair Guaranteed.

Holthimers. Third and Broad.

The House of Fashion

Bernard, Frances & Co. Broad and Fifth Streets

and made a brilliant and auspicious beginning. One of the biggest concerts at the club last year was given by Mr. Wells, and several hundred members and guests gathered yesterday to welcome him back to Richmond. Mr. Wells, who is one of the best known tenors in New York, has a golden voice and a great deal of personal magnetism. He easily carries his audience before him. He is a composer as well, and two of the most enchanting little songs of the afternoon were of his own making.

Eastern melodies framed with waving palm tree and deep blue skies, a "Mammy's Lullaby," and Siegmund's love song were all set out in the soft light of a wonderful afternoon, and the singer was obliged to respond to encore after encore.

The following program was rendered:

I. "Cara ruggio di sol" (1871-1872). Caidbere "Nina" (1710-1750). Persepolis Recitative, "Deeper and Deeper Still"; Aria, "Waft Her Angels" ("Jephthah"). Handel II.

"Nachtgang" . . . . . Strauss "Zwischen" . . . . . Strauss "Es hat die Rose sich Bluet" . . . . . Franz "Als die Alte Mutter" . . . . . Dvorak "Sturm" . . . . . Aria, "Waft Her Angels" ("Jephthah") . . . . . Wagner III.

Songs of a Syrian Lover . . . . . Frank Howard Winter Verses by . . . . . Clinton Scudder (a) "I Love the Sunlight on the Palms" (b) "Violin String and Dulcimer" (c) "My Olives Wave in the Wind" (d) "Safe Guided by the Pharaoh Fire" (e) "Amid the Ruined Palms of Baal" IV.

"Boat Song" . . . . . Herbert Oliver "Among the Untroubled Waves" . . . . . John Barnes Wells "Why" . . . . . John Barnes Wells "Moon and Sea" . . . . . Montague Phillips "Alone I Wander" . . . . . Harriet Ware "If I Were King" . . . . . Mrs. A. B. Guigou was chairman of the afternoon, and L. E. Weitzel accompanist.

Afternoon Reception. Mrs. Herbert Mann and Mrs. George Bryan have issued invitations for a reception to be given on Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock at 311 West Franklin Street.

Leonard—Philpotts. Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Philpotts, of Louisa, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Bessie Bland, to Dr. T. B. Leonard, of this city.

Leisure Postponed. Owing to the previous engagement of Maxon Atkinson, the address which had been made by him under the auspices of the Council of Jewish Women on Thursday night in the basement of the Beth Ahabah Synagogue has been indefinitely postponed. It is expected that the address will be delivered at some later date.

Prayer Recital. The pupils of Miss Rosetta Mitchell gave their first monthly recital last Saturday evening at 1839 Hanover Avenue, on Saturday evening.

Many new and many brilliant costumes were worn by those present. In the dining room huge baskets of Lady Hillington roses were used everywhere, and the tables and buffets, from which supper was served, were decorated in the same blooms.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock stood with their children to receive the congratulations of their friends, and nearly 100 guests were entertained.

Mrs. Whitlock wore an imported gown of white moire velvet with a collar of point lace and a belt of lace. An old-fashioned affair of saffron flowers finished with a lace ruff and tulle streamers. Mrs. Whitlock was before her marriage, Miss Eva Abram, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Abram, and their old home from which she had moved fifty years ago, corner of Nineteenth and Broad Streets, is still standing. The Rev. George Jacobs officiated at the ceremony in the old home of the bride's parents.

Many gifts and quantities of beautiful bouquets were received by Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock on this unique and interesting occasion, and the ballroom was thronged with a brilliant gathering of relatives and friends to present their hearty congratulations and felicitations to Mr. and Mrs. Whitlock. A great many guests from a distance came to Richmond to be present.

Dinner for Bridal Party.

Maxwell Wallace is giving a dinner Thursday evening at his home near Westhampton in honor of Miss Barbara Trigg and David Tucker Brown, whose wedding will be a fashionable event Saturday evening, and the guests will include the bridal party.

At the Art Club. The annual meeting of the Art Club of Richmond will take place to-night at 8 o'clock. At 8:30 a reception will be held, at which the Right Reverend D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, will address the members and their guests in the club drawing-rooms on the subject of "Preservation of the Aesthetic Sense." The house committee will serve refreshments after Bishop O'Connell's lecture is concluded, and all members and their friends are invited.

There will be no lecture at the Art Club this afternoon.

Musical Tea. An interesting charity event of this evening will be the musical tea at 8 o'clock in Grace Episcopal Church. Decorations will be in fall flowers, and a charming program has been arranged by the committee in charge of the affair.

Black From Europe.

Dr. A. E. Turman has returned to Richmond, after a sojourn abroad, one year having been spent in Vienna and the remainder of the time in Egypt, Southern Europe, the British Isles and parts of Western Asia. Dr. Turman's daughter, Miss Adele Turman, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, of New York, accompanied by them, joined her father in Europe last summer for an extended stay. Miss Turman has a great many friends in Richmond, having spent much of her time here and in Goodrich. She is a granddaughter of the late Prince Nescowitz of Hungary.

Black From Vienna Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Warren have returned from their wedding tour through the South, and are now back in their home, 319 Decatur Street, South Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Warren were guests of honor at a very delightful reception on Saturday evening just after their arrival in Richmond.

Entertainment in Roanoke.

A progressive five hundred party was given Saturday night by Mrs. Stella M. Karnes, 1626 Campbell Avenue, Roanoke, in honor of Misses Alice Gary and Mary Walker of Richmond. The parlors were decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. The special prizes were awarded to Miss Gladys Davies and George Kuntz, and those winning the booby prizes were Miss Blanche Deal and Albert Dull.

Those present were Misses Alice Gary, Mary Walker, Gladys Davies, Gilda Price, Theresa Miller, Grace Benney, Blanche Mitchell, Blanche Deal, Pauline Knott, Nan Sticker, George Kuntz, Percy Jenkins, Richard Jenkins, Robert Davis, Fred Fisher, Harry Barnhart, Fred Douglass, Albert Dull, Edward Lockett and Willie Miller.

The chaperons were Miss Bertha Deal, Mrs. S. A. Austin and Mrs. Stella M. Karnes.

At the Woman's Club.

John Barnes Wells sang at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon. It was the first musical of the season.

Dinner for Bridal Party.

Maxwell Wallace is giving a dinner Thursday evening at his home near Westhampton in honor of Miss Barbara Trigg and David Tucker Brown, whose wedding will be a fashionable event Saturday evening, and the guests will include the bridal party.

At the Art Club. The annual meeting of the Art Club of Richmond will take place to-night at 8 o'clock. At 8:30 a reception will be held, at which the Right Reverend D. J. O'Connell, Bishop of Richmond, will address the members and their guests in the club drawing-rooms on the subject of "Preservation of the Aesthetic Sense." The house committee will serve refreshments after Bishop O'Connell's lecture is concluded, and all members and their friends are invited.

There will be no lecture at the Art Club this afternoon.

Musical Tea. An interesting charity event of this evening will be the musical tea at 8 o'clock in Grace Episcopal Church. Decorations will be in fall flowers, and a charming program has been arranged by the committee in charge of the affair.

Black From Europe.

Dr. A. E. Turman has returned to Richmond, after a sojourn abroad, one year having been spent in Vienna and the remainder of the time in Egypt, Southern Europe, the British Isles and parts of Western Asia. Dr. Turman's daughter, Miss Adele Turman, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Shafer, of New York, accompanied by them, joined her father in Europe last summer for an extended stay. Miss Turman has a great many friends in Richmond, having spent much of her time here and in Goodrich. She is a granddaughter of the late Prince Nescowitz of Hungary.

Black From Vienna Trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Warren have returned from their wedding tour through the South, and are now back in their home, 319 Decatur Street, South Richmond. Mr. and Mrs. Warren were guests of honor at a very delightful reception on Saturday evening just after their arrival in Richmond.

Entertainment in Roanoke.

A progressive five hundred party was given Saturday night by Mrs. Stella M. Karnes, 1626 Campbell Avenue, Roanoke, in honor of Misses Alice Gary and Mary Walker of Richmond. The parlors were decorated with palms and chrysanthemums. The special prizes were awarded to Miss Gladys Davies and George Kuntz, and those winning the booby prizes were Miss Blanche Deal and Albert Dull.

Those present were Misses Alice Gary, Mary Walker, Gladys Davies, Gilda Price, Theresa Miller, Grace Benney, Blanche Mitchell, Blanche Deal, Pauline Knott, Nan Sticker, George Kuntz, Percy Jenkins, Richard Jenkins, Robert Davis, Fred Fisher, Harry Barnhart, Fred Douglass, Albert Dull, Edward Lockett and Willie Miller.

The chaperons were Miss Bertha Deal, Mrs. S. A. Austin and Mrs. Stella M. Karnes.

At the Woman's Club.

John Barnes Wells sang at the Woman's Club yesterday afternoon. It was the first musical of the season.

Dinner for Bridal Party.

Maxwell Wallace is giving a dinner Thursday evening at his home near Westhampton in honor of Miss Barbara Trigg and David Tucker Brown, whose wedding will be a fashionable event Saturday evening, and the guests will include the bridal party.